PRIVATE BILLS.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railroad, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, or Slide; or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community; or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, to be published as follows:—

A notice inserted in the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition.

Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is presented to the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by the preceding rule, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO FEES ON PRIVATE BILLS.

56. The parties seeking to obtain a Private Bill shall pay the Clerk of the House the sum of one hundred dollars before the First Reading thereof, and an additional sum of one hundred dollars immediately after the Second Reading thereof. And no such Bill shall be read a First Time, or committed after Second Reading, until the fees payable on the First or Second Reading respectively are paid to the Clerk, and all such Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in Imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10½ inches by 7½ inches, and 100 copies thereof shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the First Reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

70. Authority to act as Parliamentary Agent may be obtained on application to the Clerk of the House, and upon payment of the sum of five dollars.

"THE COTTONWOOD GOLD MINING COMPANY, LIMITED." FOREIGN.

REGISTERED 22ND DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1889.

Certificate of Registration.

THIS is to certify that I have this day registered "The Cottonwood Gold Mining Company, Limited," foreign, under the "Foreign Mining Companies' Registration Act, 1888."

The objects for which the said Company is formed are:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, to take on lease or in exchange, to acquire by mining sett or licence, concession, grant or otherwise, any lands, mines, mineral rights, buildings, easements, rights, privileges, machinery, plant or effects whatsoever, and every description of property, real or personal, movable or immovable in British Columbia or elsewhere, which the Company may from time to time think fit to acquire.

(b.) Without prejudice to the generality of the objects mentioned in the memorandum, to make and carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement in the form set out in the schedule to the Articles of Association, registered herewith, for the acquisition of the properties mentioned in such agreement.

(c.) To work, win, and get any mines and minerals, and to exercise any mining or other rights acquired by the Company, and to wash, crush, reduce, amalgamate and render merchantable, and sell, or dispose of, or otherwise turn to profit, any ores, precious stones and mineral produce.

(d.) To develop the resources of the Company's lands by building, laying out, planting, cleaning, cultivating, colonizing and otherwise dealing with the same; to stock the same, and to breed and deal in all kinds of stock, cattle, sheep and produce.

(e.) To acquire, construct, establish, maintain, and work any roads, electric lines, operations of cultivation or land improvement, and other operations which it shall be deemed advantageous or convenient to establish or work in connection with the objects of the Company, and generally to do all such acts and things, the doing of which shall be deemed calculated to develop the property of the Company.

(f.) To do whatever may be necessary or expedient to procure the Company to be incorporated as a body politic and corporate, or otherwise to establish for the Company a legal domicile or representation in British Columbia or elsewhere.

(g.) To purchase and acquire any way, leaves, powers, easements, grants, exemptions, patents, brevets d'invention, leases, and other property, and to enter into any joint working, or joint purse agreements, which may be deemed useful for, or conducive to, the attainment of any of the objects of the Company.

(h.) To acquire, construct, maintain and use engines, rolling stock, waggons, machinery, plant, ships, boats, vessels of all kinds, wharves, piers, jetties, docks, ships, stores, warehouses, buoys and beacons, and all other buildings, erections, constructions, plant and things necessary or ancillary to any part of the Company's business.

(i.) To plant, or assist in planting, colonies or settlements, and for that purpose to carry out, or assist in the emigration of settlers, colonists or others, upon such terms, and in such manner in all respects as the Company shall deem proper.

(j.) To farm, manage, develop, sell, lease, mortgage, dispose of, or otherwise deal with all or any of the property of the Company, or any other property, as agents for any other company or person.

(k.) To promote, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares or interests in, and to guarantee the payment of any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities issued by any other company, partnership, undertaking or business, British or foreign, having objects together or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to engage in any business or transaction within the Company's objects, in partnership or otherwise, in conjunction with any other person or Company.

(l.) To raise capital or borrow money by the issue of any mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, or obligations of the Company, either at par, premium or discount, and either redeemable or irredeemable, or perpetual, secured on all or any part of the undertaking, revenues and property of the Company, present or future, including the uncalled capital or the unpaid calls of the Company, or without such security, or by such other means, and upon such other securities, as the Company may from time to time determine, and to exchange or convert from time to time any such securities.

(m.) To lend money with or without security, to lease, mortgage, exchange, transfer, pledge, sell, surrender, or otherwise deal with and dispose of all or any part of the undertaking or business of the Company, and any shares, debentures, debenture stock, obligations, concessions, decrees, grants, privileges, patents, brevets d'invention, contracts, interests, rights, or property belonging to the Company.

(n.) To pay all the expenses of, and preliminary to, and incidental to, the promotion, formation, establishment and registration of the Company, or of any other Company promoted, formed, established or registered by the Company, and all brokerage, discount, and other expenses which may be deemed expedient for placing all or any of the shares and debentures or other obligations of the Company, or of any Company so promoted, formed, established or registered by it.

(o.) To amalgamate or fuse the Company with any other Company, corporation, society, partnership or undertaking whatever, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, under any conditions or restrictions, and with or without guarantees for the performance of any special obligations by any other company or person with objects the same as or similar to the objects of this company, or any of them.

(p.) To pay, or procure to be paid, interest on the capital of the Company for the time being subscribed during the construction of the Company's works, and before profits are realized by the Company out of any funds in the Company's possession, and to enter into any arrangement for the payment of interest with any contractor or other person or company.

(q.) To create and issue new shares, or issue any shares, forming part of the original capital of the Company divided into different classes, and having any respective rights, preference, rank, guarantee or privilege, whether fixed, fluctuating or contingent, redeemable or irredeemable, either as to capital or dividend, or both, and to issue the same at par, premium or discount.

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the above objects, and so that the objects specified in any of the paragraphs of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressly provided, be in no wise limited to any other paragraphs.

The amount of capital stock of the said Company is £10,000, divided in 1,000 shares of £10 each.

The place of business of the said Company is located at Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal of office this 22nd day of February, 1889, at the City of Victoria, Province of British Columbia.
